ROLESVILLE HIGH SCHOOL
Rolesville, North Carolina

'60 B L U E d E V I L S

We dedicate our annual to MRS. SAM WALL, manager of the Rolesville Cafeteria, for her many years of service to the Rolesville School and community. Her warm personality, friendly ways, and sense of humor have won for her the love of the Rolesville students.

We will always cherish your kind smile as you busily served us our meals. Thank you, Mrs. Wall, for your interest and concern for all of us.

dedication

principal's message

To you the Senior Class of 1960, the doors of opportunity are open. Beyond these portals lie many objects to be investigated, evaluated, and molded into useful tools for civilization. Each of you will select a different area in which you will strive to aid your fellow man.

It is the desire of all of us that you will prepare yourself beyond the high school level in order that you might make for yourself a better place in society. There are many institutions available to you here in our own area.

Take advantage of these higher places of learning.

Working with you for the last three years has been a privilege for which I am truly grateful. It is always a pleasure to work with a group displaying the qualities that you possess.

I wish for you success and happiness in every task that you encounter.

history

On a sunny day in September 1948, we, a group of mischievous children, descended upon the first grade classrooms. Mrs. Broughton and Mrs. Doby were put in charge of "riding herd on us" for our first year of instruction. Mr. Wallace was our principal at that time.

Many of us were very excited to say our Bible verses to Miss Zura Williams and Miss Woodlief, our second grade teachers, because awards were presented by C. B. M. Faye Hailey and Dennis Perry joined us that year.

Mrs. Shea was our third grade teacher. The multiplication table was one of our problems that year. Mr. Davis came to Rolesville as our principal that year and stayed until we completed our ninth year.

Our fourth year found us separated again. Mrs. Winston and Miss Fuller "tried" to pound arithmetic into our heads.

In our fifth year, Mrs. Boyan and Mrs. West were our teachers. They were very patient and understanding. Douglas Pearce joined us that year.

In the sixth grade, Mrs. Batten and Mrs. Applewhite guided us. I'm sure we all remember Mrs. Applewhite leading us in singing.

Mrs. Ihrle and Mrs. Baldwin were our teachers in the seventh grade. Both of them taught us many things and were very kind to us.

Mrs. Applewhite and Mrs. Carnes taught us North Carolina History (at least they tried). Our Orientation Day was the one real highlight of the year; also we enjoyed square dancing that year. Mary Murphy, Sammie Pridgen, and Dudley Tucker joined us that year.

In September of 1956, a group of "greenhorns" entered the ninth grade. We "took" the usual amount of teasing from our upper classmates and could hardly wait until we ourselves would be "upper" classmen. Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Lowie had to put up with us that year. A football team was organized that year. However, we lost four of our classmates at the end of the year: Sherman Marshall, Alfred Hicks, Roy Perry, and Rebecca Watkins.

At the beginning of our Sophomore year, Mr. Lanier joined us as our principal. He has been a great help to us ever since. Our group of "seasoned" Sophomores was guided by Mr. King and Mr. Price. Mrs. Williams joined us as our English teacher. She really tried to pound "Julius Caesar" and "Silas Marner" into our heads; let's hope she was successful. Shirley Watkins and Gaylon Journigan quit at the end of that year.

Our Junior year had many highlights; among them were: the Junior Play, "It's A Great Life"; and the Junior-Senior Banquet with the theme of "A Song In My Heart." David Mason and Jerry Gordon withdrew during that year.

At the beginning of our Senior year, the class consisted of twenty-seven members since Betty Carter, Roy Rogers, and Jack Rogers had deserted us. All of us were disappointed to know that we could not have a Senior trip to Washington. But, we have looked back with fond memories over the twelve years spent in school, and we hope that our future will be as happy. We were fortunate to have had Mrs. Lanier and Mrs. Williams as our Senior sponsors. We are grateful to them for all the help and guidance they have given us.

prophecy

Who was it that said there was no success in the hearts and minds of those 1960 Seniors of "Rolesville High?" Was it you? Yes, it probably was. But do you know...

ADA MAEBARHAM, better known as Lanet Lane, a glamorous movie star, is suing for her fifth divorce. Her divorce lawyer, DONALD BUNN, has become as famous as Perry Mason, the television character.

RACHEL BELL has become a foreign missionary in Africa and is trying to convince the head-hunter tribes to trade their shrunken heads for Bibles.

ALMA CHALK, married to Ruffin, her ex-steady, is now living on one of the finest tobacco farms in Eastern Carolina.

EVELYN EVERETTE is now a beauty operator in Las Vegas and has become an expert gossip.

FAYE HAILEY, who owns her own beauty salon, is constantly trying to get her customers' hair to curl.

CORA UNDERWOOD and FRANK HODGE are very happily married. They have in Florida an ultra-modern home, which Frank, now a famous designer, planned. Cora is thinking seriously about running for "Mrs. America."

JACK MASSEY, now a profitable beef cattle producer in the West Indies, is supplying Swift and Company with his fine beef.

WAYNE MERRITT drives a 1970 Ford and is Jack Kochsman's top hell-driver.

ALICE MITCHELL, an airline hostess, is flying all over the world and still looking for her dream lover. (R. R.)

TED MITCHELL, a colonel in the army, has recently been commended by the President for developing robot control.

MARY MURPHY, who still prefers English to other subjects, is thoroughly enjoying teaching at Columbia University.

EVA LILLIE PEARCE has her own T.V. show and has taken Miss Margaret's place on the "Romper Room."

DOUGLAS PEARCE and DENNIS PERRY have a special customized garage in California. They are selling "hot rods" for $25,000 each!

FAYE PEARCE, who is famous in the medical field, is now a laboratory technician at Duke.

ELEANOR POOLE, now a history teacher at the "new modernized" Rolesville High School, is firmly trying to convince her freshman students that Columbus first discovered America.

ELEANOR WILLIAMS and SAMMIE PRIDGEN are, as we expected, married. Eleanor, while working at the Johnson Publishing Company, is struggling hard to become an ideal housewife. Sammie is teaching French at a Tennessee University.

FRANCES STALLINGS, the private secretary of the Duvall Insurance Company of Raleigh, North Carolina, is combining her career with marriage.

CECIL STELL plays football for the Baltimore Colts and holds the record of having the "biggest feet" on the entire team.

DUDLEY TUCKER raises thoroughbred horses in Kentucky. One of his horses "Kentucky King" won second place in the Kentucky Derby this year. Congratulations, Dudley!

SUE WALL is an outstanding model for the "Look" magazine. During her spare time she keeps books for the Hall and Hall Incorporated.

CAROLYN WEATHERS has her own singing program on WFVG in Ft. Worth, Texas. One of her latest records sold over a million copies. Keep up that success, Carolyn!

TOMMY WILSON has reached his goal in boxing. He is now the heavyweight Champion of the world.

And I, BARBARA WATKINS, am a receptionist for the Byron and Cooper Incorporated of Paintsville, Kentucky.

BARBARA WATKINS
Prophetess

Last will and testament

We, the 27 members of the Senior Class of 1960 of Rolesville High School, do hereby declare and publish this our Last Will and Testament:

ARTICLE I

To our school, we leave our everlasting love and loyal support.

ARTICLE II

To our parents, we extend our deepest love and appreciation for helping to make our graduation possible.

ARTICLE III

To Mr. Lanier, we leave our appreciation for all that he has done for us during the three years he has been at Rolesville.

To Mrs. Lanier, we leave a quieter homeroom!

To Mrs. Williams, we leave an English Class that enjoys writing term papers more than we did!

To Mrs. Snell, we leave a bigger Economics Class and a quieter study hall.

To Mrs. Mohorn, we leave our hopes that next year's typing students can make better typing speeds.

To Mrs. Duff, we leave a Homemaking Class that knows something about sewing.

To Mr. Price, we leave our hopes that the football team will be more successful next year.

To Mr. Perkinson, we leave a "Toni Home Permanent." Have all of that hair curly, please, Mr. Perkinson.

ARTICLE IV

To the Juniors, we leave our front seats in chapel and the thrill of being Seniors!

To the Sophomores, we leave our cleverness which brought us to the top of the ladder.

To the Freshmen, we leave our ability to stay out of trouble!

ARTICLE V

ADA MAE BARHAM wills her witty ways to her cousin, Faye Barham. "Stay out of trouble, Faye."

RACHEL BELL wills her ability to write poetry to her niece, Jessie Vee.

DONALD BUNN wills his school bus to Glenn Jones.

ALMA RUTH CHALK leaves her ability to go steady to her sister, Brenda. "Be sure to find time to do your homework, Brenda."

EVELYN EVERETTE wills her seat in the Senior Class to all her brothers and sisters. "Study hard, kids!"

FAYE HAILEY wills her typing ability to Jimmy Gay. "Make those fingers fly, Jimmy."

FRANK HODGE wills his place in the Geometry Class to Donnie Woodlief. "Have fun, Donnie!"

JACK MASSEY wills his place in the Senior English Class to Bobby Poole. "Work hard to get there, Bobby!"

WAYNE MERRITT wills his loud tone of voice to Grady Ayres. "Watch out, Grady!"

ALICE MITCHELL wills her U. S. History book to her brother, Sterl, and hopes that he has better luck than she did. "Better start studying Sterl!"

TED MITCHELL wills his ability to go steady to Jackie Mitchell.

EVA LILLIE PEARCE wills her driving ability to Lois Shearon. "Stay away from those telephone poles, Lois."

DOUGLAS PEARCE wills his ability to get along with all girls to James Robert Averette.

FAYE PEARCE wills her love for the Y. W. C. A. to anyone who likes to dance and meet boys.

DENNIS PERRY leaves his place on the football team to Homer Daniel.

ELEANOR POOLE leaves her place on the basketball team to Phyllis Eddins. "Play hard, Phyllis!"

SAMMIE PRIDGEN leaves his position as President of the Science Club to his brother, Kenny.

FRANCES STALLINGS wills her place as editor of the annual to her sister, Brenda. "It's a lot of work, Brenda, but it's worth it!"

CECIL STELL wills his quiet ways to Charles Marshall. "Make use of them, Charles!"

DUDLEY TUCKER wills his ability to have fun to Curtis Massey.

CORA UNDERWOOD wills her superlative, "Most Attractive," to Lynda Edwards.

SUE WALL wills her two superlatives, "Best Dressed" and "Most Popular," to her sister, Jo Ann.

BARBARA WATKINS wills her friendly ways to Linda Carol Williams, even though she doesn't need them.

CAROLYN WEATHERS wills her love for dancing to Lena Mae Watkins and hopes she will enjoy it as much as she has.

ELEANOR WILLIAMS wills her superlative, "Best Personality" to her sister, Betty Lou.

TOMMY WILSON wills his place on the football and baseball teams to his brother, Leslie.

And I, MARY MURPHY, leave my place as testatrix to some unknown Junior.

MARY MURPHY

When oft we think of days gone by,
The heartaches and the fun.
They're just twinkling flames of time.
We cherish them, everyone.

Our Memory Lane lengthens every day,
For we know graduation's not far away.
We think of our friends, classes, and books;
The teachers who gave us dirty looks.

We'll cherish our memories of the Junior play,
Of Brax's Grill, where the teen-agers stay.
Our Junior-Senior Banquet, what a night!
But selling "ads" was our main plight.

With these memories we must never part.
They'll always be cradled in our heart.
Though friends are gone, where we don't know,
We'll have star-lined memories wherever we go.

RACHEL BELL

A LONG, LONG, TRAIL
There's a long, long trail behind us
It's filled with friends we adore
There are days which we will ne'er forget
Oh, co-eds nevermore.

We'll remember though we're parted
By fate's unchangeable hand.
All the teachers and the principals
Who guide us from shifting sand.

Sure we know that we may never
See all our classmates again.
But we cherish every moment,
As this long, long trail ends.

BUS DRIVERS

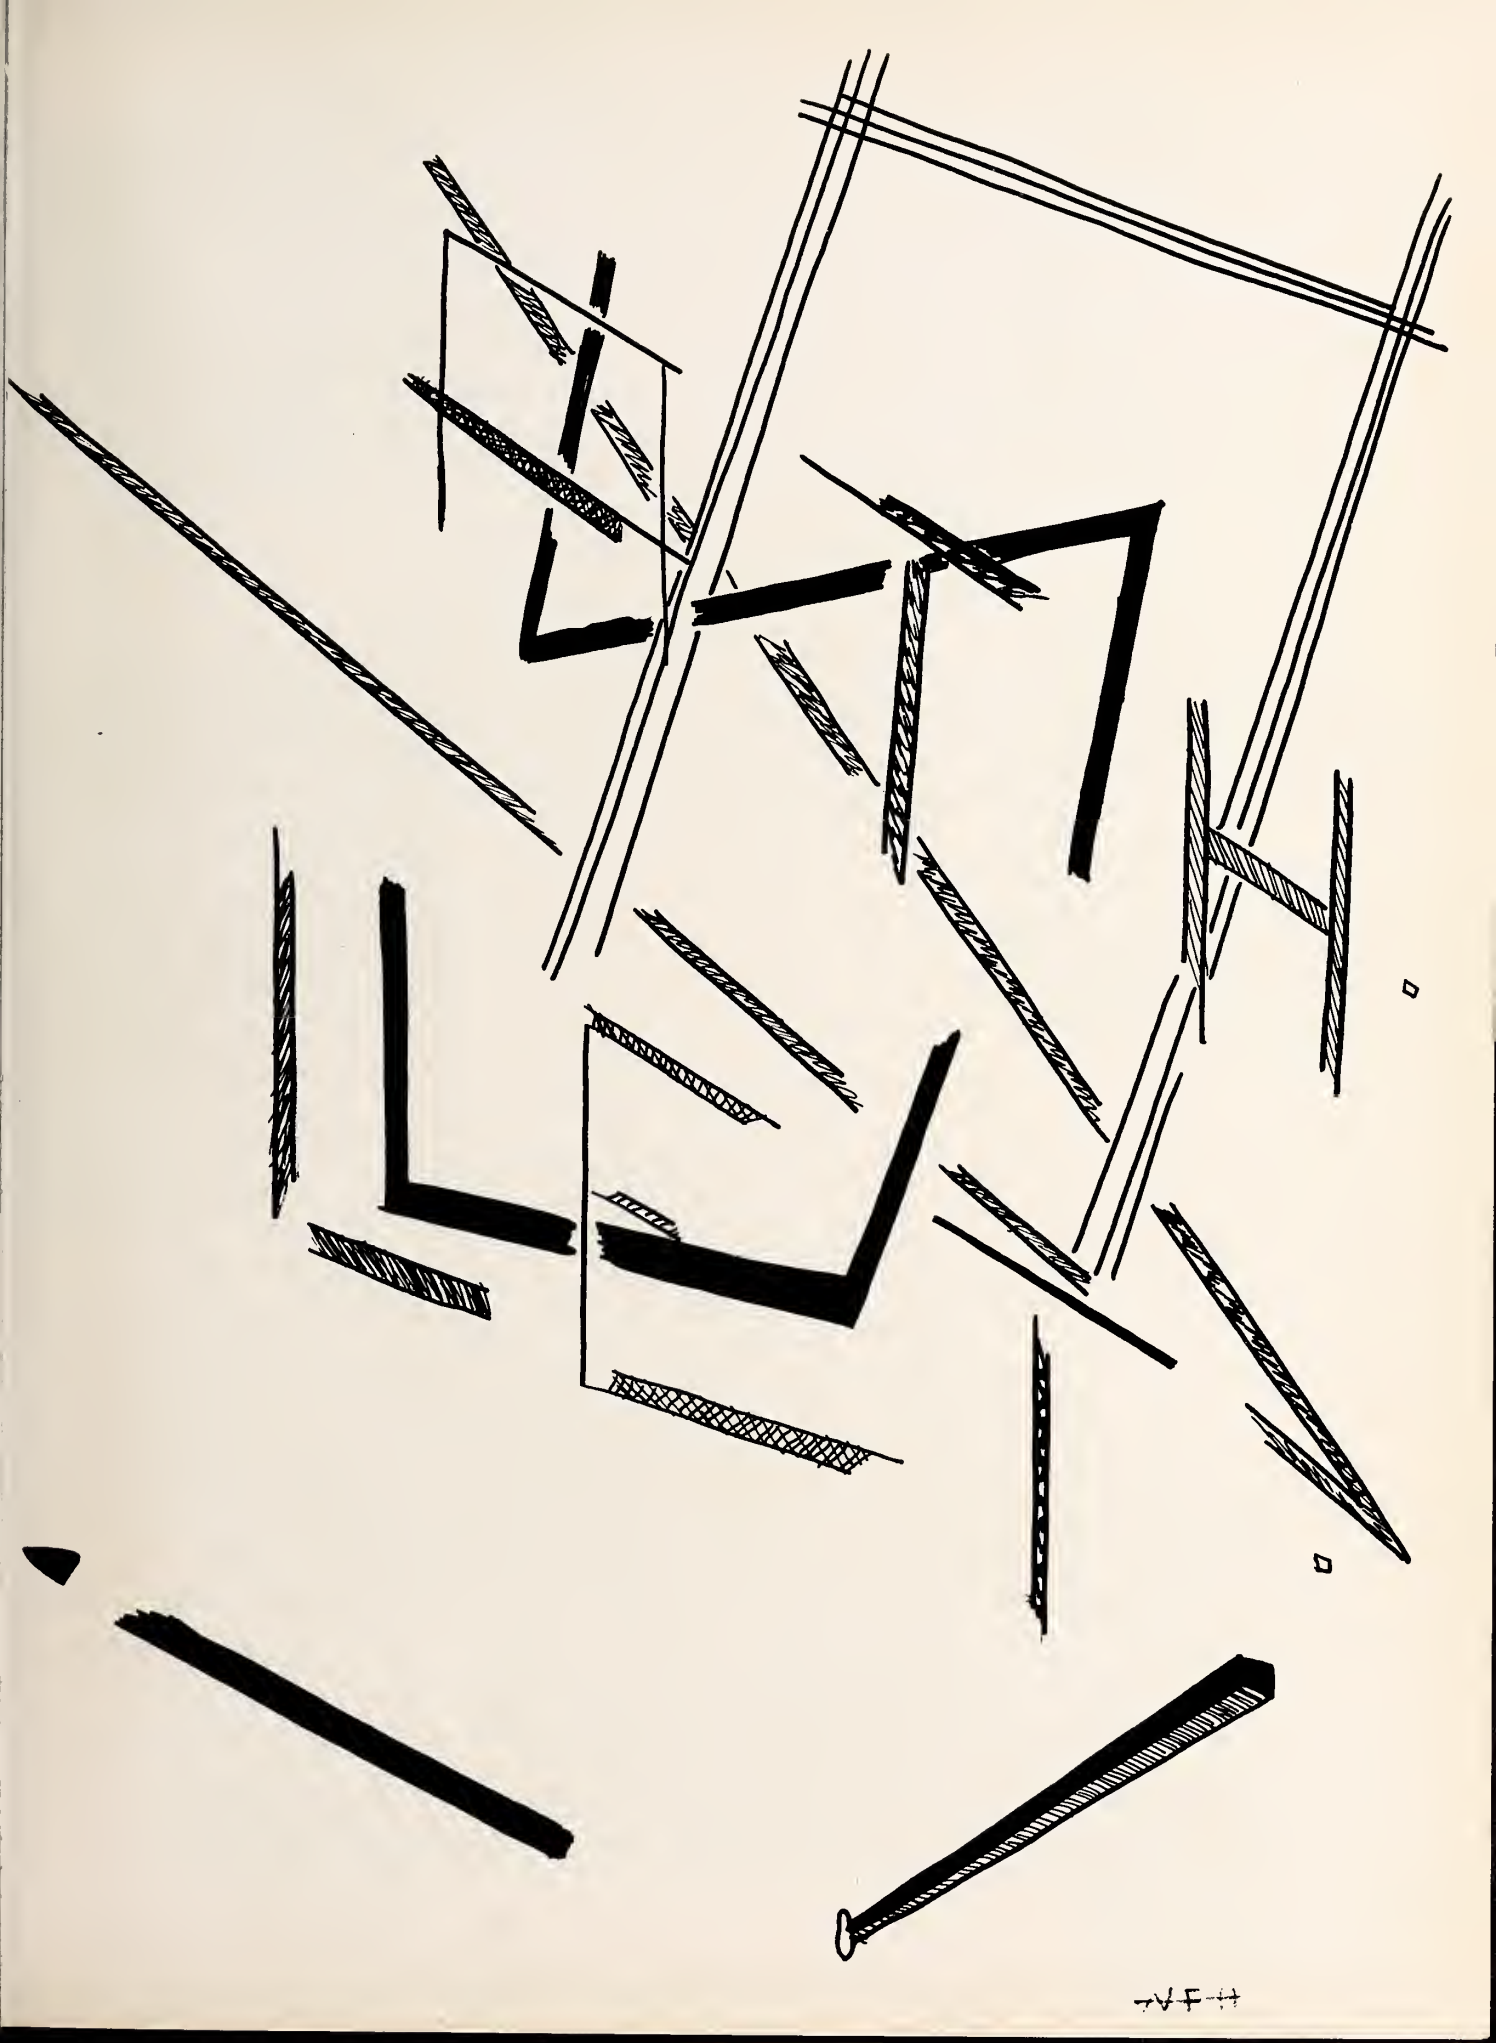

The American Legion has conducted a Boys' State each summer since 1939. Outstanding, rising high school seniors are selected from many parts of North Carolina, to attend each year. The boys have a week of intensive study about all forms of local, state and national government. Many leading public officials and dignitaries are present to lecture to the boys.

The athletic part of Boys' State is very rigorous. Each day they have three and a half hours of swimming, baseball, basketball, or track.

At the end of the week, elections are held and a boy is elected to each office represented in the state. The educational opportunities are excellent, and Boys' State is one week that Sammie and I will never forget.

HERMAN B. JONES
August 20, 1912 October 20, 1959

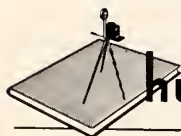

"We shall rest, and, faith, we shall need it—lie down for an aeon or two,
Til the Master of all Good Workmen shall put us to work anew." —KIPLING

We will always remember his pleasing smile and his enthusiastic attitude in every activity. His ready willingness to help everyone made him a beloved friend to all of us.

For his great community services and his untiring efforts as chairman of the Rolesville School Board, the Senior Class of 1960 presents this annual as a memorial to Mr. Jones.
